Motion For Extension of Time For Amendment To Civil Complaint

Pursuant to Rule 6(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Mr. Hartmann respectfully ~~move~~ asks this Honorable Court for a second extension of time to respond to the Order dated August 21, 2006.

In support thereof, the following is stated:

1. Mr. Hartmann, and as one of classes, is an inmate at the Delaware Correctional Center with its past and present history of illegal obstructions and deliberate indifference to the laws of the land with invidious discriminatory animus in this ever more modern, civilized, decent society as claims in the Civil Complaint explain causing prejudice to him and his similarly situated inmates to timely, equal, effective, meaningful, capable, and adequately, legal access to the information and entitlements under the American Disabilities Act to communicate to the courts in a meritorious way in the interest of life, liberty, and property interests for due process and equal protection ~~of~~ ^{to} the laws of the land.

2. Mr. Hartmann has been trying his best to get the Amendment ^{on} in time but cannot due to his mental disabilities, failing to be prevented, diagnosed, and treated, which continues to interfere severely, daily, with his major life activities, as per

Civil Complaint, including getting this Amendment completed in a more timely fashion.

3. He wishes to finish it as fast as possible also. Mr. Hartmann has severe memory loss from the illegal prison conditions and other psychological and physical damages requiring rereading everything even minutes later and having to rewrite everything by hand to assemble his notes. He has to copy word for word from law library legal books, to later apply to each of his claims, with an obstructive, very limited, prejudicial amount of time at the law library and its limited assistance. Denial to necessities of life by Defendants deny legal access to the courts.
4. Deliberate indifference, by Defendants as legal custodians and prison administration as seen in Complaint, deny Mr. Hartmann, et al., the legal entitlements through the American Disabilities Act and the lack of advocate in this tiny state, do not leave him on an equal footing to communicate in the elements above for a legal manner.
5. Also, due to unexpected other time sensitive legal work needing to be done lately, caused him more delays to get this Amendment done.
6. Wherefore, based on the above reasons, Mr. Hartmann respectfully prays for this Honorable Court understand, assist, and GRANT this Motion and extend the time for filing this Amendment to the Order for 30 days.

Dated: November 7, 2006

Sincerely Yours,

Orville Williams
